A FARM HAND

Kills a Farmer and His Wife Near Waukesha, Wis.

The Hired Girl and Hired Man Probably Fatally Wounded.

The Murderer Had Been Sheltered Over Night by the Farmer-After Finishing Ilis Bloody Work the Fiend Mount-7 ed a Bicycle and Bode Away.

MILWAUKEE, Wia, May 8.-A double, and what may yet prove a quadruple murder, occurred at the farm home of Alexander Harris, who resided about five miles south of Waukesha, at an early hour Friday morning, the victims being Mr. Harris, his wife, hired girl and hired man. The crime was committed, it is supposed, by a farm hand named Wm. Pouch, who had been sheltered by the farmer over night. The dead and wounded are: Alexander Harris, aged about 45 years, killed outright. Mrs. Harris, aged 44 years, killed. Hired girl, fatally wounded. Hired man, probably fatally wound-

Early Thursday evening William Pouch, a farm hand who had worked for Mr. Harris about two years ago, called at the house and requested lodging over night. He was taken in, given supper and assigned a room.

After concluding his breakfast,
Pouch arose from the table and started to walk toward the door, but suddenly wheeled around and before the women realized what was about to happen he shot Mrs. Harris in the breast and then fired at the hired girl. The farmer's wife fell to the floor with a fatal wound and expired soon afterwards. The hired girl has a chance of recov-

About 5 o'clock Mr. Harris and the hired man arose and went to the yard to milk the cows, Mrs. Harris and the hired girl remaining to prepare breakfast for the family. Pouch left his room quietly, and going to the yard where the men were milking the cows, bade them good morning. Harris and the hired man were sitting on stools near each other and before they were aware of any evil doing Pouch drew a revolver and fired at the farmer, killing him almost instantly. The murderer then turned the weapon upon the hired man and shot him in the body, inflicting a probably fatal wound. The man fell motionless to the ground and Pouch evidently supposed him dead

After finishing his bloody work the murderer mounted a bicycle and rode away. He started in a southwesterly direction over the Mukwanago road, and the supposition is that he is headed for Burlington. A posse of farmers are in hot pursuit, and the chances are he will be captured before night. They openly vow that they will lynch the

The supposition of the authorities is that the man is either insane or that he committed the terrible deed in order to hide evidence of another crime. The manner in which the murders were committed show plainly that he had been deliberate in arranging his plans and had carried them out to the letter.

Mr. Harris was one of the best known farmers in the county and was quite well to do. Pouch had worked for him some time during the summer of 1895 and nothing occurred so far as known to cause any enmity between them. He is described as about five feet in height, 20 years of age, wears a mustache and has blue eyes. The name of the hired man is Nelson Mc-Holt. He is 25 years of age. The girl is Helen Vesbach, aged 26.

It transpires that after shooting his victims Pouch went upstairs and robbed the house.

Latest reports from Mukwanago state that Mrs. Harris was not fatally shot as first stated and may recover. There is little hope for Nelson Mc-Holt, the hired man, and Helen Vestsach, the girl, their wounds being considered fatal.

The story is the topic of conversation in all the ciubs.

El Diario de La Marina, the reformist organ here, in a leader sounds an ominous note of warning by intimating that the so-called reforms that Premier Canovas has offered to the island will be little more than a farce should Cuba be left to pay the cost of the war. Spain must pay it, El Diario declares, otherwise, the paper adds, she can not hope to keep the colony and continue to monopolize its trade.

It then went into executive session, so that no official information has been given as to the amendments made and final action taken. The secrecy of executive session does not permit the state department or the British government to be felt to be due to the other contracting party to the treaty that some notice should be given as to what has been done, and as to the form of the treaty when rejected.
